

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).

Discussion questions on 1 Timothy 5; Titus 2

1. How are the instructions of 1 Timothy 5 related to 1 Timothy 4?

The Family of God – 1 Timothy 5:1:

2. What do older men need to learn? (See Titus 2:2). What is included in “exhort” in 1 Timothy 5:1?
3. Why does Paul use so much familial language in 1 Timothy 5:1? (see 1 Timothy 3:14,15)
4. What do young men need to learn? How can that be taught (or caught)? See Titus 2:6-8.
5. What should older women be doing? See Titus 2:3,4.
6. How should an officer relate to younger women? Also see Titus 2:4,5.
7. Why does Paul include a section for slaves in Titus 2:9,10.

Widows – 1 Timothy 5:2-16:

8. Why does Paul give such detailed instructions about the care for widows? See Acts 6; Deuteronomy 10:12-22. How important is the diaconal work of the church?
9. What is the first line of care for widows? Is 1 Timothy 5:8 hyperbole?
10. What should be the impact on the widow’s faith of the care extended by the church?
11. What kind of safeguards should be in place?
12. How can this kind of care be extended in today’s culture?

13. What should the younger widows be doing?
14. How would you respond to the suggestion that Paul’s instructions are chauvinistic?
15. How can the church encourage a sense of calling for women and men?

Worthy Elders (and other matters) – 1 Timothy 5:17-25:

16. Why does Paul return to talking about elders?
17. Who are worthy of double honor? What is meant by that? What kinds of work are included in responsibilities of elders?
18. What Scriptures does Paul refer to?
19. Why is the caution about entertaining accusations needed? (See Numbers 25:30; Deuteronomy 17:6)
20. When is public rebuke needed?
21. Why is impartiality important?
22. What is meant by hasty laying on of hands? How can we avoid that?
23. Note the references to judgment near the end of both 1 Timothy 5 and Titus 2. Why are they there?

The point is that true covenant widows have much to offer the church from their godly experience, not the least of which is prayer (v. 5).... The contemporary possibilities are endless. We need to replace our concept of "career," focusing on self-fulfillment, with the Covenantal idea of "calling." It was out of this sense of service (v. 10) that the "hospice" and the "hospital" grew. Hence: the modern orphanage, crisis pregnancy center, and L'Abri Fellowship, which never would have given "shelter" to anyone without the tireless service of Edith Schaeffer. Report of the Committee on Women in Church Office to the 55th General Assembly (http://opc.org/old/GA/women\_in\_office.html).